Song Talks

My dear Mr. Lummis

Please let me have a copy of your second collection of old Spanish songs. You call it "Flowers of Romance" do you not. The first collection was so excellent that everyone will welcome a second.

Very sincerely -
Isabel S. Johnson
(Mrs. Milbank Johnson)

281 S. Orange Grove Ave.
Pasadena, Calif.
November third.

November 6, 1924

Mrs. Milbank Johnson,
281 So. Orange Grove Ave.,
Pasadena, California.

My dear Mrs. Johnson:

The Second Book of "Spanish Songs of Old California" is not out yet, and I am not sure when I shall have time to issue it.

The "Flowers of our Lost Romance" is simply a descriptive line I have used with reference to the book of songs and not to the songs themselves.

So I return your check, with thanks -- but will hope to have one from you when the new book does appear -- or perhaps for further copies of the "First Book".

Sincerely yours,

CFL:JM